

As of March 24, 2020 the Governor of New Mexico, Michelle Lujan Grisham has ordered the closure to the public of all non-essential businesses through April 10th. During these challenging times of the current Public Health Emergency, Robertson & Sons Violin Shop wants you, our valued friends and clients, to know that we will make every possible effort to respond to your questions, and fulfill any requests.

The best way to reach us during this time is by e-mail. We are checking e-mail frequently from our homes during condensed business hours; 9:00am to 3:00pm Tuesday through Saturday. We will answer any questions you may have. Please include your complete name and phone number in your e-mail, so that we may call with follow up questions, if needed.

We encourage you to contact us:

Incoming Shipments:

We are receiving shipments during this time, so you do not need to delay your shipment to us. Rest assured that a member of our staff will be available to receive your shipment.

We greatly appreciate your business and will make every effort to accommodate your needs in a timely manner. Patience and understanding will be required by all during the coming weeks.

We are delighted to see the many innovative ways that musicians are creating to play, teach, inspire and share via social media during this crisis. Keep on playing and please send your photos and videos to us!

From all of us at Robertson & Sons Violin Shop, we wish all of you good health and joyous music making!

With all best wishes from our entire staff,
